

Safety rules Terminal 1

This document aims to inform each participant of the safety and prevention measures applicable to the activities offered in Terminal 1, and to record their acceptance of the risks involved.

Each activity within Terminal 1 is operated by the operator responsible for that activity:

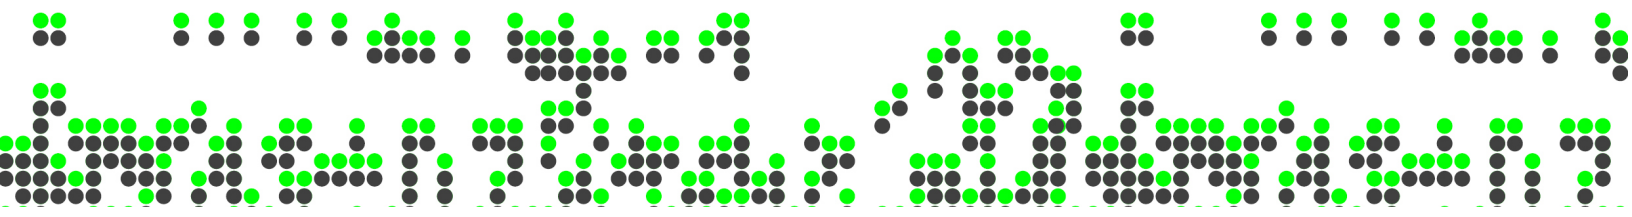

Activity	Operator	Company Number
Time Mission – RFID Escape Game	Netlux Entertainment SRL	1033.672.679
EVA – Virtual Reality Arena	Fire-Starter SA	0411.679.579
The Sim Power – Racing Simulators	Fire-Starter SA	0411.679.579
Supercube – Augmented Reality Karting	Supercube SRL	1026.702.735

1. Voluntary Participation and Prior Information

Participants acknowledge that participation is free and voluntary. Before taking part in an activity, participants must:

- Verify that they meet the applicable participation requirements for the activity in question, as set out in Sections 2 and 4 below.
- Familiarise themselves in advance with the nature, operation, restrictions and risks inherent in the activity;
- Assess, under their own responsibility, whether they are physically and mentally fit and sufficiently comfortable to participate;
- Refrain from participating or discontinue participation at any time in the event of doubt, discomfort or if they no longer wish to continue;
- Comply at all times with the safety rules, safety regulations and instructions provided by staff.

By participating in an activity, the participant agrees to attend the safety briefing and to ask staff any questions they may have before the activity begins

2. Fitness, Health and Restrictions

By participating in an activity, the participant confirms that they are physically and psychologically fit to take part and that they do not have any medical conditions that could prevent them from doing so (including epilepsy, photosensitivity, severe claustrophobia, heart conditions, respiratory disorders, sensitive eardrums and similar conditions). They also confirm that they are not under the influence of alcohol, drugs or medication that may affect their alertness, reflexes or behavior.

Certain activities may be subject to requirements relating to age, height, supervision, dress, physical fitness, punctuality, etc., or the relevant operator may require a specific liability waiver to be signed. Proof of age may be requested upon arrival. Failure to comply with these requirements, including those set out in Section 4 below, may result in access being denied or participants being excluded from the activity without a refund or compensation.

3. Acceptance of Risks Inherent in the Activities

The participant understands that the activities offered in Terminal 1 carry inherent risks that exist independently of any fault on the part of the relevant operator.

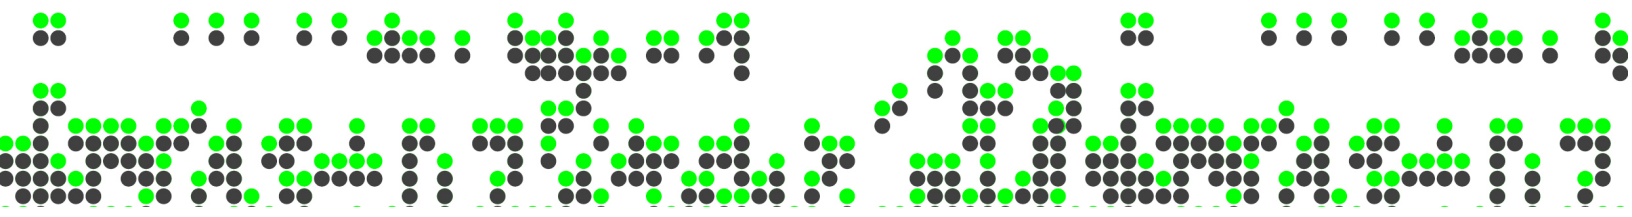

These risks include, but are not limited to, collisions or contact with other people, karts, equipment or scenery; slips, falls, impacts, entrapments, cuts, sprains, strains, fractures or injuries resulting from improper use of equipment; fatigue, muscular or joint pain, neck or back problems; nausea, dizziness, disorientation, simulation sickness or discomfort associated with virtual reality, screens, movement, speed, force feedback, stress, time pressure, darkness, confined spaces, sudden sounds or lighting effects; as well as physical consequences resulting from sustained physical exertion.

By participating in the activity, the participant acknowledges that their participation is free and voluntary, and that they could have chosen not to participate. They also acknowledge that they accept the risks involved, including those arising from the actions of other participants.

4. Conditions of Access

Participation in the activities is prohibited for individuals who do not meet the minimum safety requirements or for whom the activity may present a risk. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- persons who do not meet the required age and/or height requirements;
- pregnant women;

- persons with a medical contraindication or who suffer from epilepsy, photosensitivity, severe claustrophobia, heart or respiratory conditions, pain affecting the neck, back or legs, balance disorders, recurrent nausea, hearing sensitivity, an increased risk of fractures, unexplained loss of consciousness within the past five years, or persons fitted with a pacemaker;
- persons who have difficulty understanding or following instructions, whose reflexes are impaired, who suffer from serious concentration disorders or who experience anxiety-related reactions;
- for activities involving a vehicle-driving experience (including Supercube), adults who are medically unfit to hold a driving licence and minors who are medically unable to ride a bicycle.

Access to activities may also be subject to additional conditions imposed by the relevant operator, particularly with regard to punctuality or execution of a liability waiver. If in doubt, participants should refrain from taking part.

5. Safety Instructions and Conduct

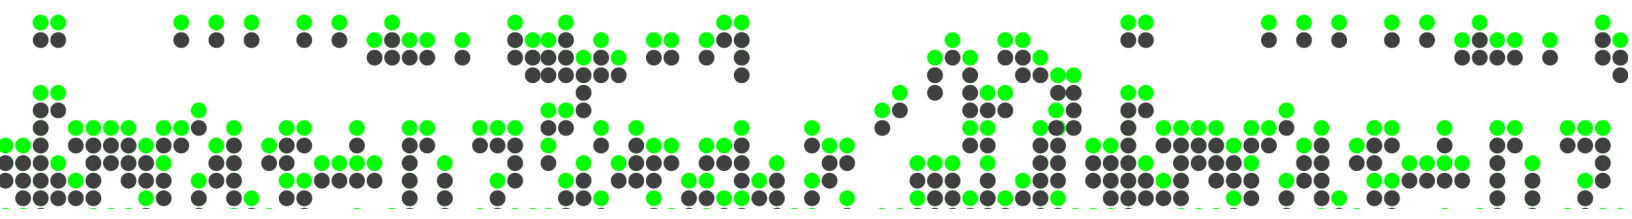

The participant undertakes to comply strictly with all displayed rules, safety briefings and staff instructions. In particular, they agree to behave carefully, respectfully and safely; not to run, push, initiate contact intentionally, leave authorised areas, damage, force, move or misuse equipment, vehicles, scenery, mechanisms or safety devices; wear any required equipment or clothing (including closed shoes and tied-back hair, and ensuring that clothing and scarves are not loose); not bring weapons, illegal substances or prohibited items onto the premises; not make unauthorised recordings; report any incident, illness, malfunction or dangerous situation immediately; and discontinue the activity if they no longer feel fit to participate.

In the event of an emergency or medical incident, the participant (or their legal representative) authorises staff to contact the emergency services. The participant shall be responsible for any medical expenses incurred, unless otherwise required by applicable law.

Any person who fails to comply with the rules; behaves in a dangerous, abusive, threatening, disruptive, aggressive, intoxicated, unsportsmanlike, or antisocial manner; or compromises the safety or proper conduct of the activity may be denied access, or excluded from the activity immediately, without refund or compensation.

No refund shall be payable in the event of non-compliance with access or safety requirements, absence, lateness, or voluntary withdrawal from the activity.

The participant shall remain personally liable for any damage caused as a result of their fault, negligence, recklessness, or failure to comply with instructions and applicable rules.

Animals are not permitted on the premises or in the activity areas, with the exception of assistance dogs accompanying a person with a disability.

6. Liability

Each activity is operated under the responsibility of the operator in charge of that activity.

This document does not limit or exclude the operator's liability in cases of fraud, gross negligence or bodily injury caused by the operator, its employees or agents.

For all other matters, and to the fullest extent permitted under Belgian law, the operator's liability shall be limited to direct and foreseeable damage, not exceeding the amount paid by the participant for the relevant activity.

The relevant operator shall not be liable for any damage resulting from the participant's failure to comply with the rules, restrictions or safety instructions, from any inaccurate or incomplete declaration, from the conduct of a third party or another participant, from the risks inherent in the activities and accepted by the participant, or from the loss, theft or damage of personal belongings, except where such damage results from a fault attributable to the operator.

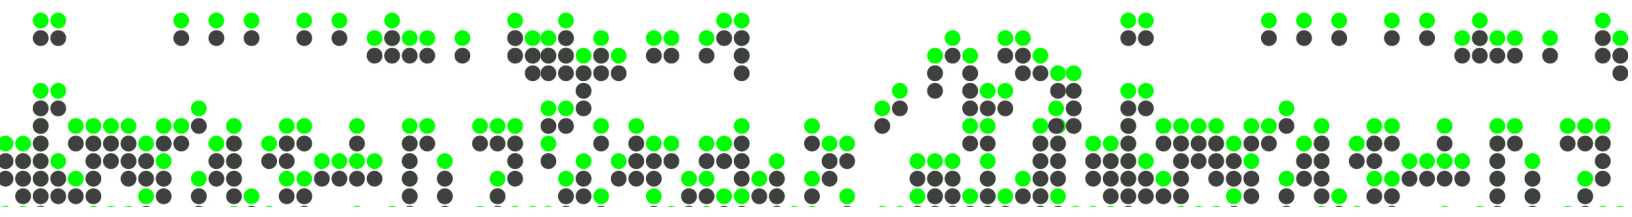

Nothing in this document shall affect the mandatory consumer rights granted under Belgian law.

7. Minors

If the participant is a minor, this document must be signed by their legal representative.

By signing this document, the legal representative declares that they have the necessary legal authority to consent to the minor's participation. They confirm that they have read and understood the nature of the activity, the risks involved and all the conditions set out in this document

They undertake to ensure that the minor complies with all safety instructions, rules and directions given by staff.

8. CCTV Surveillance and Image Rights

Certain areas of Terminal 1 and certain activities may be subject to CCTV surveillance for the purpose of ensuring the safety of individuals, protecting property, preventing incidents and identifying potential infringements.

The presence of CCTV surveillance is indicated by the legally required signage. Any processing of images shall be carried out in accordance with applicable Belgian legislation and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Participants enjoy the rights granted by such legislation, subject to the conditions and limitations provided therein.

Entering an area marked to indicate the presence of CCTV surveillance cameras constitutes prior notice of their existence.

The areas concerned and the respective data controllers are as follows:

- The CCTV cameras in the communal areas of Terminal 1, the EVA virtual reality arena, The Sim Power area and the Supercube area are the responsibility of Fire-Starter SA (BCE 0411.679.579).
- The cameras in the Time Mission area are the responsibility of Netlux Entertainment SRL (BCE 1033.672.679).

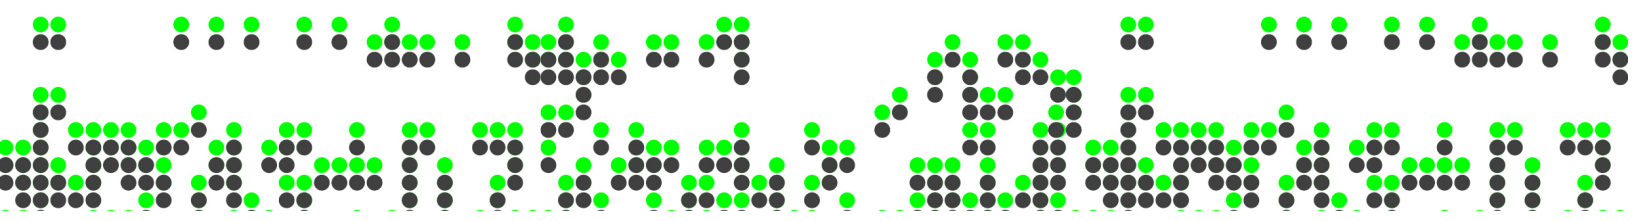

CCTV surveillance implemented for security purposes is based on the legitimate interests of the relevant operator(s), in accordance with Article 6(1)(f) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 on the protection of personal data (General Data Protection Regulation – GDPR).

In accordance with the Privacy Policy of Fire-Starter or Netlux Entertainment, and for the cameras under their respective responsibility, the recorded footage is retained for a maximum of one month, unless its retention is necessary in the context of ongoing legal or disciplinary proceedings.

Access to recorded footage is strictly limited to the data controller and those persons acting under its authority.

Any individual whose image is recorded has the right to access footage relating to them, as well as the rights granted under the GDPR, including the right to rectification, erasure and restriction of processing. Such rights may be exercised by contacting the relevant data controller.

Further information about how Fire-Starter processes your personal data through its CCTV surveillance system in relation to its activities is available in our Privacy Policy on our website.

9. Acceptance

By participating in one or more activities offered within Terminal 1, the participant declares that they have read this document in full, understood its contents and accepted all of its provisions without reservation.

The participant expressly acknowledges that they have had sufficient opportunity to ask questions regarding the activity, its risks, the conditions of participation and the contents of this document before taking part, and that all necessary explanations have been provided.

